

CAN YOU IMAGINE CARRYING 60,000 REMEDIES AND TEST KITS IN YOUR JACKET POCKET?

Bruce Copen Laboratories brings you RemedyPro, the first and only iOS app for electronic homeopathy.

In combination with the RemedyPrinter, the intuitive RemedyPro software is child's play to use and highly beneficial in your daily practice. Usable on all iOS devices from Apple.

Create your own electronic homeopathic remedies with the help of over 60,000 test and therapy frequencies that have been tried and tested for decades.

Create sterile proprietary nosodes from your patients' blood, saliva, urine and hair.

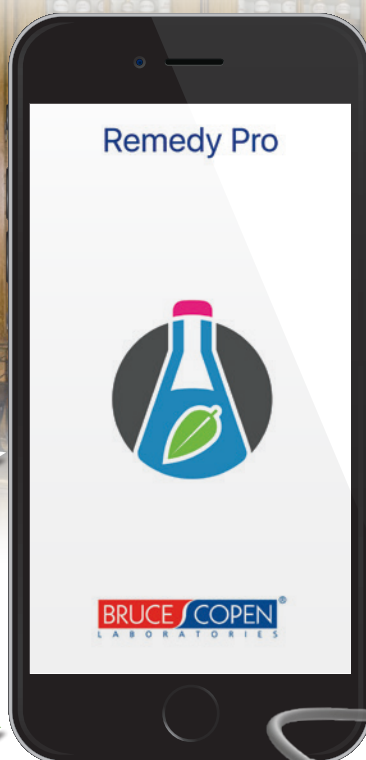

Do you test kinesiologically, with Biotensor or RAC? Then the RemedyMaster enables you to perform "surrogate analyses" with tissue material containing DNA, such as blood, saliva or hair.

Proven signal control and processing from the Copen MARS III system.

Copy and duplicate energetically effective original preparations onto neutral carrier substances.

Create any potency, whether D, C or LM/Q - up to high potencies like XM, CM, MM within seconds.

You want to work with funds that are not yet recorded in the Remedy-Master? No problem. The database can be extended by the user himself. Scan in a simple way test kits or substances.
